

SOZIALSTIFTUNG BAMBERG

Wenn Sie uns brauchen.

Klinikum Bamberg

Klinik für Orthopädie und Unfallchirurgie

Buger Straße 80 • 96049 Bamberg

Tel 0951/503-12201 • Fax 0951/503-12229

e-mail: chirurgie2@sozialstiftung-bamberg.de

Postoperative Regime after Shoulder Surgery

IV Shoulder hemi or total endoprosthesis

- |                               |   |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Week 1-3                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Immobilization in a shoulder sling, e. g. Medi Arm sling</li><li>• Physiotherapy: Lymphdrainage, swelling reduction</li><li>• Keep the thoraco-scapular sliding plane free, posture training</li></ul>  |
| Week 4                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Passive/assistive practise up to 60° of abduction and elevation</li><li>• Limitation of rotation to IRO/ARO 90/30/0°</li><li>• Lymph drainage</li><li>• Keep the thoraco-scapular sliding plane free, posture training</li></ul>  |
| Week 5-6                      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Removal of the immobilization bandage</li><li>• Passive/assistive practise up to 90° of abduction and elevation</li><li>• Extrenal rotation up to the neutral 0 position!</li><li>• Otherwise as week 4</li></ul>   |
| After week 7and following | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Intensive physiotherapy</li><li>• Free functional treatment, stepwise increase of external rotation</li><li>• Pain related active exercising</li><li>• Muscle strength training with TheraBand or other strength exercises</li><li>• PNF</li><li>• Manual therapy</li></ul> |

Prof. Dr. Peter Strohm
Chief Physician

Prof. Dr. Volker Schöffl
Executive Physician
Shoulder Surgery & Sportorthopedics

12/2015